

'ATITHI DEVO BHAVA.'

In Sanskrit literature, the three words 'Atithi Devo Bhava' or 'The Guest is truly your God', is a dictum of hospitality in India. Indians believe that they are honoured if they share their mealtimes with guests. Indian families are renowned for their ability to serve food to their guests whether invited or impromptu and every Indian woman takes particular pride in ensuring all her guests are well fed.

Come, experience India through her world of cuisine across an infinite plate of favours. An Indian meal is more than a feast of senses because it carries the impression of geography, local custom, tradition, belief and religious ideology. The result is an exotic blend of taste, texture and form that encompasses a wealth of regional specialities dictated by climate, location and culinary tradition.

To be our guest this evening to discover a thousand gourmet worlds in one country. As a feast of culinary specialities collected from the Indian subcontinent and recreated by our master chefs, for our dining pleasure.
